2011 IIHF World Championship, Slovakia

Decorate your school and go to see the hockey!

The 2011 IIHF World Championship Organizing Committee announces Bratislava and Košice school competition.

The 2011 IIHF World Championship Organizing Committee has announced a Bratislava and Košice school competition named: Decorate your school and go to see the hockey!

The competition is for all junior schools in Bratislava and Košice. The role of the entrants is to decorate their school hockey style.

Schools are allowed to make use of the official 2011 IIHF World Championship logo and Gooly the official mascot. Every kind of creative decoration is welcome – hallways, windows, T-shirt designs, caps... The best decorated school in Bratislava and Košice will be decided by a competition commission. The prizes are attractive. The winning school will be able to visit a 2011 IIHF World Championship game in Bratislava and the winning school in Košice will be able to visit a 2011 IIHF World Championship game in Košice. The winners will be announced on 21.4.2011.

The competition will run from 15.3.2011 until 15.4.2011. Photographs (max 5) are to be sent along with contact details to skola@szlh.sk by 15.4.2011 (maximum email volume 5 Mb) We will be glad if the highest possible number of primary schools take part in the competition, thereby contributing to making Bratislava and Košice more attractive as they are to be the two venues for the most significant sporting event in the history of the Slovak Republic.
