

MEET THE BULLETS!

The Bullets are a team that had a lot of spirit even before arriving together: they are the only team among the three that had a full roster since the first day and for both games that they've played.

"It's a varied team in many ways such as height and skill," said Coach Kellin Carson, "But they come together to make a passionate team. There's a strong team atmosphere on the Bullets." With the addition of coach Omar Al Shamsi yesterday the Bullets are now fully complete and are ready to take on the Spartans in today's match.

Bullets goalie Singh Gamandeep has been impressive in net; this being his first time playing with full goalie equipment and he's already making glove saves!

Yesterday's score:

Spartans beat the Typhoon 6 – 3.
