

2012 HPC - Camp Rules

The 2012 IIHF High Performance Women's Hockey Camp promotes the vision of partnership for progress, people coming together and learning from each other. The aim is to develop both hockey skills and life skills of the participants, and emphasizes "Fair Play and Respect" both on and off the ice.

All participants must agree to follow these guidelines during the Camp.

On-Ice Rules

- The on-ice practice rules are the responsibility of the Team Coaches
- Players must obey these rules and guidelines
- The on-ice game rules are enforced by the Game Officials, as per the camp's Game Protocol and the IIHF 2010-2014 Rule Book

Off-Ice Camp Rules

- No Changing of Room Assignments
- No Alcohol or Drugs
- No Smoking or Chewing Tobacco
- No Gambling for money
- No Pornography
- No Theft
- No Vandalism
- No Outside Visitors in Rooms
- Curfews must be followed
- All Room Services and bills are the responsibility of the person and must be paid before leaving
- Be on time for all activities
- No use of mobile phones during team meetings, camp seminars or in the dressing room or at any other times requested by Team Staff
- Respect for all Persons and Property

Sanctions

- The sanctions are based on levels of severity
- The following are some examples of sanctions that may be implemented:
 - Warning given by Team Staff
 - Individual Meeting
 - Referral to Camp Leadership
 - Single Game Suspension
 - Multiple Game Suspension
 - Sent Home
 - Additional Suspension by National Association

The Camp rules are the basic rules expected in general life and are centered on having respect for those around you. Make this camp the best experience possible by simply being polite, and treating people in a respectful manner and everyone will be happy!